

BIOGRAPHY

Randy Berglund is a graphic designer and digital artist originally from Chicago, IL, though has lived in the Tri-Cities, WA area most of his life. He graduated from Whatcom Community College with an Associate's Degree in Graphic Design and from Western Washington University with a Bachelor's in Arts Degree in Graphic Design/New Media.

Randy has always been drawn to things that are different. The art he creates is his way down the rabbit hole. It is his looking glass to the imagination, his leap of faith to places unknown and worlds undiscovered. He began his venture into the art world in 2012, having donated art to the Fragile-X Foundation in an effort to raise money for their cause. He has also displayed artwork at the WSU Tri-Cities Chancellor's exhibits, both in Fall 2012 and Spring 2013, as well as at Columbia Basin College, Threads Boutique and the Walter Clore Wine and Culinary Center. He hopes to continue to expand the range and breadth of his showings.

His digital canvas produces a door into the subconscious within each composition. While trying to stay as diverse as possible, Randy will continue to produce artwork that will hopefully influence people to go dancing into their imagination as often as possible.
